Principal's Report (Leroy Heckemeyer):

Grandparents' Day was celebrated on Friday, September 18 - Very well attended and a lot of nice compliments about our school.

Three Rivers Electrical company came on September 24th for an Electrical Safety assembly.

Our students did a very nice job on their achievement tests that were taken. A huge thank you to our students, faculty and parents/guardians who all contributed in making this possible. We are very thankful and appreciative for all of your support in everything we do here at St. Thomas the Apostle! Our Picture Day with Interstate Studios was held on October 14/Retakes are on November 18th.

Congratulations to our girls' volleyball team on a very fine season!

End of 1st Quarter was on October 16th and Parent/Teacher Conferences were held on October 22nd and they were well attended.

Our students in grades K-4 went on a field trip to Pete's Pumpkin Patch in Rolla on October 29th.

The Trunk or Treat was on October 30th and was very well attended.

Basketball teams and the Archery team are both practicing. Good luck in all of your future games and meets!

STUCO had a trail mix sale that brought in around $340.00 and all this money will be used for their family they adopt from the Samaritan Center at Christmas. They also just had a bake sale that made almost $400.00 and these funds will be used for STUCO operations and some will be used for their Christmas family.

Congratulations go out to Kenadi Braun, Chesney Luebbering, Isaac Rackers, Molly Suthoff and Leon Wolken for receiving blue ribbons at the Diocesan Speech Meet on November 7th at St. Martins. Mid-Quarter is on Wednesday, November 18th.

Amanda, from Red Cross is coming to our school on Monday, November 23 to talk with our students about the K of C Blood Drive on November 29.

The 7th and 8th graders will be going on their Helias Catholic School visit on Tuesday, November 24th.

Thanksgiving break will be November 25-27 for grades K-8 and Preschool will be off on November 26-27.

First Friday - Adoration/Confessions will be on December 4th.

The Advent Program will be on Thursday, December 10th at 7:00 p.m. in the gym.

The 2nd graders First Reconciliation will be on December 11th @ 7:00 p.m.

On Monday, December 21 will be our bowling trip for grades K-8. We will leave around 11:30 and stop at Mid America Bank to sing some Christmas Carols before we proceed to West Gate Lanes for the bowling trip. They are still allowing us to bring in cookies for the trip.

We will have an early release on Tuesday, December 22nd, which will start our Christmas Vacation. Grades K-8 will be off from December 23-January 3rd.

School will resume for grades K-8 on Monday, January 4, 2016. Preschool is still to be determined by Mrs. Kirkweg.

Catholic Schools Week is January 31 – February 6. First Communion will be on April 3rd. Music Appreciation Day will be either on March 22 or 23.
