LENTEN REFLECTION

"God is not waiting around to get even with people for things that they have done fifteen years before. God is gentle and humble of heart; unconditionally good and loving. Therefore we do not need to cower and grovel before God's will. We need to trust in it; trust in its awesome beauty, its unconditional power to bring goodness out of seeming limitless diversity of so many people's lives..."

- Fr. Robert Spitzer, SJ, Healing the Culture.

I would like to thank everyone in our St Thomas and Meta communities and St Thomas the Apostle School staff and school families who have helped out with our girls, brought food or just sent a sweet card or note to me during my few months stay at Barnes in St Louis. So good to be home and being able to see my girls every day in person and not on an iPad during our FaceTime talks! I have had a couple setbacks as expected after my bone marrow transplant in December but just taking each day that God has given me as a true blessing! Thank you for the continued prayers and support.

WINNING SCHOOL ESSAY

"I love St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic School because we get to learn about Jesus, his miracles and his birth on Christmas. I also love our school because we get to attend Mass by serving, reading petitions and bringing up offertory. Our priest is very nice and loves us all. After Church there are some older people that stay after Church because they love us.

I also love our Catholic School because of the teachers & students. My friends are nice and don't believe in bullying. Our principal, Mr. Heckemeyer is very nice and awesome.

Our school is awesome and we get to do fun activities. Some of these activities are field day which has fun games and food, like popsicles, water balloon toss, kickball and bouncy house. Red Ribbon Week is when we learn about not to take drugs and make good choices. Catholic Schools Week is when it is all about the students & teachers. The students get to watch movies and have popcorn. These are just some of the many reasons why I love my Catholic School." –Ava Morris, 4th Grade
