ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH PICNIC – Sunday, August 19, 2018

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE SESQUICENTENNIAL MEETING MINUTES: April 19, 2018 6:30 PM

Attendees: Fr. Jeremy Secrist, Roseanne Boessen, William Boessen, Bill Lueckenhoff, Jan Heckemeyer, Tom Backes
Father Secrist began the meeting with a prayer.

Fr. Secrist showed the group a copy of the form for vendors. Some of the detail discussed included the set up time vendors needed, the placement of vendors, parking, electricity, etc.

Fr. Secrist had a copy of the draft sponsorship form to get advertisements added to the heritage book. Roseanne will check back in the minutes to verify the pricing the committee agreed to previously. He had also followed up with Ameren regarding the banners on Route B.

The group discussed the development of the flyer for the October 6 Homecoming. The flyer needs the list of activities being held throughout the day and the time each activity starts.

October 6 Homecoming: The day will start with Mass at 10:00 am. If we can get help to arrange it, a parade would start at Noon. That would give time for the crowd to eat and then find a spot for the parade. Many of the vendors will be lined along the lower parking lot. The group thought a central stage should be set up at the top of the parking lot. Bands would play music there during the day. The German band would start at 1 pm, after the parade. The next band at 2 pm, with time in between for set up and take down. The basketball area in the lower parking lot could be used for the old-fashioned competitions, like nail hammering contests. A billboard will show the who is still in the competition, time of the next competition, etc. There are parishioners that would like to have their own booths for displaying things and demonstrations, car displays, tractor displays, etc. We plan to have tours and possibly a museum in the gym or cafeteria.

Things that need parish input: 1. What do we want as the grand finale? 2. How late should the events be scheduled? This could depend on the type of grand finale, like fireworks. 3. What other old-fashioned games, or demonstrations, or activities would you like to have for the Homecoming? 4. What items do you have that can be used for demonstrations, games or activities? Just as an example, if we had a cross-cut saw competition, do you have a cross-cut saw we can use? Contact a committee member to let us know your ideas.

Action Items: Roseanne will draft a sign-up sheet for families and organizations wanting to participate in a parade. Committee members will contact folks to request help with organizing some of the activities. Contact a committee member if you would like to volunteer your help.

History Book: William updated the committee on the progress of the heritage book, showing which sections are finished, in progress, and not yet started. He provided Father with a sample brochure from the publisher. Roseanne said over 130 family narratives are in the "Family Portrait" section. Changes are still coming in and a few new narratives are trickling in. Jan would start a tracking sheet for managing the book orders, purchases, etc.

The next meeting is planned for May 22 at 6:30 pm. The agenda for the meeting: 1. The event schedule will be decided. 2. Identify people who would help with activities. 3. The type of keepsakes will be decided. 4. The group will review the 16 colored pages of the book.

Father Secrist closed the meeting with a prayer.
