You can also mail checks directly to St. Thomas the Apostle Church, PO Box 146, St. Thomas MO., 65076. Thank you for your continued support and generosity!

BISHOP MCKNIGHT'S AUGUST PRAYER INTENTION: As we begin this school year, may all recognize our shared mission to hand on our Catholic faith to the next generation.

PASTORS MEDITATION: 21st Sunday in ordinary time, year B: OUR MAJOR FOCUS SHOULD BE ON JESUS NOT ON OUR LIFE CHALLENGES. (Jos. 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b; Eph. 5:21-32; Jn. 6:60-69)

The way to survive in this life is not to focus on our life challenges but focus on God, on Jesus his son, for he has the words of eternal salvation, his words are spirit and life. Christian life is a series of daily choices for God or against God, as we choose to live out or reject the truths He has revealed through His prophets in the Old Testament and especially through His Son Jesus in the New Testament. The fundamental choice we make determines how we live our lives, deciding whom we will serve.

In the first reading, Joshua challenges the Israelites to decide whether they will serve the gods of their fathers, the gods of the Amorites in whose country they are presently dwelling or the God of the Israelites Who has done so much for them. This Renewal of the Covenant ceremony in Joshua reminds us that the Eucharist is a Covenant meal that calls for a decision of Faith. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 34) reminds us that in choosing God for our God we are choosing Life and His Eternal faithfulness and Love as our shelter and salvation.

The second reading emphasizes the unity that must exist in the Body of Christ and the intimate relationship between Jesus and His followers. It also challenges us today as it did for the Ephesian Christians to make the right choice in life and build Christian marriages on mutual respect and love, accepting each other's rights and dignity. Jesus also uses the husband-wife relationship as an analogy to explain the close relationship between Christ and the Church. Paul reminds us that Jesus nourishes us, the members of His Church, through the Eucharist, making us His own flesh and blood, as husband and wife become one flesh.

Concluding his long Eucharistic discourse, Jesus, in today's Gospel, challenges his Jewish audience and later His apostles, to make their choice: to accept Him as the true Bread from Heaven Who gives them His Body and Blood as their Heavenly Food or to join those who have lost their Faith in Jesus and left Him, expressing their confusion and doubts about His claims. WEEKEND MASSES IN ST. CECILIA CHURCH

Aug. 28 Saturday 5:00 p.m. – Ushers
Aug. 29 Sunday 10:00 a.m. – Ushers
Sept. 4 Saturday 5:00 p.m. – Ushers
Sept. 5 Sunday 10:00 a.m. – Ushers passage describes the various reactions of the people to Jesus' claims. Many of the disciples leave but the apostles freely choose to stay with Jesus. In this Eucharistic celebration, we too, are called to make a decision, profess our Faith in God's Son and renew the Covenant ratified in his Life, death and Resurrection or not.

Therefore friends let us make our choice for Christ and live it: We Christians have accepted the challenge of following the way of Christ and making choices for Christ, fortified by the Bread He gives and relying on the power of His Holy Spirit. The Heavenly Bread and the Holy Spirit will give us the courage of our Christian convictions to take a stand for Jesus, accepting the Church's teachings and will enable us to face ridicule, criticisms and even social isolation for our adherence to sound Christian principles in our lives. That is what we mean by our "Amen" while receiving Jesus in Holy Communion. We express without any conditions or reservations our total commitment to Jesus in the community to which we belong. Christ's thoughts, attitudes, values, and life-view must become totally ours. Above all, we are to identify with Jesus in the offering of His Flesh and the pouring out of his Blood on the cross by spending our lives for others. Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukiibi

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH QUILTING: Quilting for the 2022 St. Thomas the Apostle Parish Picnic is starting. The picnic quilt auction is a major fundraiser for our parish each year and quilting is a wonderful way to give your time and talent to the parish. Daytime quilting will begin on Thursday, September 2 and evening quilting will begin on Wednesday, September 8. Extra copies of the quilt group list for 2022 is available on the parish website www.stthomasaposlte.net (under Parish Groups, the quilters or bulletins 2021). If you would like to help quilt, come and join our circle. We will need some quilt tops with lining to be quilted September 2. Quilt batting is available for $10.00. It would be appreciated if we could have all tops by January 2022, so we can be assured of quilting all of them on time. If you have any questions, please call Emily Luebbering at 573-477-3459 or Kathy Strobe at 573-477-3349.

HOLY HOUR is Friday, August 27, 7:00 p.m. St. Cecilia Church.

MOTHER OF PERPETUAL HELP is Tuesday, August 24, 7:00 p.m. Vitae House.

ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH PICNIC 2021 RESULTS

The Picnic Committee would like to thank everyone for the generous donations to the Country Store, pies, bread, vegetables, and other donated items. THANK YOU to all who worked, especially those who also helped before and/or after picnic day, worked double shifts, multiple areas, etc. A big THANK YOU to all who donated items for the Grand Raffle and purchased quilts! THANK YOU to Father Leonard for your prayers and support, and for delivering excellent weather! Together, we made Sunday a very successful event, with the best gross income since 2001, possibly longer. The cooperation and sense of community in our Parish is awesome and was on display again for the 2021 Picnic; THANK YOU all for your generosity with time, talent, and donations!

The Picnic Committee puts in a lot of time and effort in planning this event. Many committee members have been in place for several years, if anyone would like to volunteer to join our committee, it would make the job easier for all involved. Your prayerful consideration is appreciated. If you are interested in joining us, please contact Larry Lueckenhoff at 573.619.6783. Thank you.
