BISHOP MCKNIGHT JANUARY PRAYER INTENTON: For foster parents and adopting parents; may they experience the support of the Church and the love of God, as they expand their homes to make room for more children in their families, we pray to the Lord.

PASTORS MEDITATION: Feast of Epiphany: JESUS IS BORN FOR US ALL. (Is. 60:1-6; Eph. 3:2-3a, 5-6; Mt. 2:1-12)
Epiphany means appearance or manifestation. First, the angels revealed Jesus to the shepherds. Jesus is born for us all. He is not confined to Jews, He is King of all nations. The magi's gifts symbolize Jesus' humanity, divinity and kingship and call us to Christian action.

Today's Gospel teaches us how Christ enriches those who bring Him their hearts and offer their lives to Him. The adoration of the Magi fulfills the oracle of Isaiah prophesying that the nations of the world would travel to the Holy City following a brilliant light, bringing gold and incense to contribute to the worship of God. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 72) pictures kings from foreign lands bringing gifts to pay homage to a just king in Israel. Paul's letter to the Church of Ephesus expresses God's secret plan in clear terms: "the Gentiles are: co-heirs, co-partners in the promise, in Christ Jesus through the Gospel." The Gospel reminds us that if God brought the Magi, foreigners and pagans to recognize and give Jesus proper respect as the King of Jews, we should know that there is nothing in our sinful lives that would keep God from bringing us to Jesus.

There were three groups of people who reacted to the Epiphany of Christ's birth. The first group, headed by King Herod, tried to eliminate Jesus, the second group, priests and scribes, ignored Jesus, and the third group, represented by the shepherds and the Magi, came to adore Jesus.

Therefore, friends let us make sure that we belong to the third group: a) by actively worshiping Jesus at Mass with the gold of our love, the myrrh of our humility and the frankincense of our adoration; b) by giving a new direction to our lives. Just as the Magi chose another route to return to their homes, let us choose a better way of life, abstaining from proud, unjust and impure thoughts, words and actions, evil habits and selfish behavior; c) by becoming stars leading others to Jesus, as the star led the Magi to Jesus. Let us remove the darkness of the evil around us by radiating the light of Jesus' love through selfless service, unconditional forgiveness, and compassionate care.

Like the Magi, let us offer Jesus our gifts on this feast of Epiphany and every day: (a) the Gift of our life by offering it on the altar during the Holy Mass and every morning as soon as we get up, asking for the strengthening anointing of the Holy Spirit to do good and avoid evil during the course of the day. b) let us offer Jesus the Gift of responsive relationship with God by talking to Him in personal and family prayers and listening to Him through reading the Holy Bible every day. c) let us offer Jesus the Gift of friendship with God by recognizing Jesus' presence in, and offering loving, humble service to everyone we encounter, and by getting reconciled to God every night, asking His pardon and forgiveness for our sins and failures during the day. A Blessed and Happy New Year. Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukiibi

THE DIOCESE OF JEFFERSON CITY warns the public of what appears to be an ongoing phishing scam involving emails and texts purportedly from priests or parish/Chancery staff. This scam has hit many parishes across the United States. The email or text purports to be from a person the target knows, such as one's pastor, a parish staff member, the bishop or someone else from the Church. If the target responds to the fake email or text, the sender will follow up with a request for some sort of monetary assistance, often for gift cards or iTunes cards. It is truly unfortunate cyber criminals will attempt to exploit the generous nature of our community. Sending emails or texts asking for cash or gifts cards is not how priests, parishes or the Diocese of Jefferson City seeks financial assistance for our work. If you receive an email or text from a trusted church personnel asking for assistance, confirm by calling that person and do NOT respond to the email or text. For more information on phishing scams and email security, or The FBI website address to file an online Internet crime complaint is <https://www.ic3.gov>.
