DIOCESAN MISSION COLLECTION: This weekend July 17-18 is our annual Diocesan Mission Collection. We currently have 15 priests serving in our diocese from countries in Africa and India. Each year, we take up a collection to support the mission office. The funds from the collection are used, in part, to help the dioceses that make a sacrifice by sharing their priest with our diocese.

CONGRATULATIONS to Amelia Gene Hopkins, daughter of Matt & Rachel Hopkins, who became a child of God through baptism this weekend in St. Thomas the Apostle Parish.

A NOTE OF THANKS! ST CECILIA PARISHONERS: A big thank you to all St Cecilia workers and others from other parishes for a successful picnic. We did exceptionally well even to the point of running out of some food. Our quilting ladies deserve a big applause for a great job on their quilts. I was told this was the best year yet for our quilt auction. We were faced with a new way of serving food, but we accomplished that and had a good time visiting and interacting with each other. Thanks to those who went the extra mile and worked several days in a row. Remember our marquee sign saying "Many hands make light work."
Jeany Libbert

BISHOP MCKNIGHT'S JULY PRAYER INTENTION: We pray for our country at this moment in history, that the dreams of life, liberty and happiness remain in our hearts as well as the desire that we will always be one nation under God.

PASTORS MEDITATION: 16th Sunday in ordinary time, year B: SHEPHERDS NEEDED (Jer 23:1-6, Eph 2:13-18, Mk 6:30-34) Today's readings explain how God, like a good shepherd, redeems His people and provides for them. The readings also challenge us to use our God-given authority in the family, in the Church, and in society, with fidelity and responsibility. Today, pastoral ministry includes not only the pastoral care given by those named or ordained as "pastors," but the loving service given by all Christians who follow different callings to serve and lead others.

In the first reading, prophet Jeremiah, thunders against Israel's careless leaders; the king, some priests and some court prophets because they have shown no concern for the poor. The prophet also foretells the rise of a new good shepherd in the family-line of David. Then he consoles the Israelites enslaved in Babylon, assuring them that God will lead them back to their original pasture in Israel. Today's Good Shepherd Psalm (Ps 23) affirms David's Faith and trust in God, the "Good Shepherd." The second reading introduces Jesus as the shepherd of both the Jews and the Gentiles and explains how Jesus, the good shepherd, has reconciled all of us with His Father by offering Himself on the cross. Paul also speaks about another reconciliation between Jews and Gentiles, brought about by Jesus' accepting both into the same Christian brotherhood. In the Gospel Mark presents Jesus as the good shepherd fulfilling God's promise given through His prophet Jeremiah in the first reading. Here we see Jesus attending the weary apostles, who have just returned, jubilant, from their first preaching mission, while at the same time expressing concern for the people who, like "sheep without a shepherd," have gathered at their landing place in the wilderness. We need God's grace to become good shepherds: The Christian life is a continuous passage from the presence of God to the presence of people and back to God again. Prayer is essentially listening to God and talking to Him. We should allow God the opportunity to speak to us and recharge us with spiritual energy and strength by setting aside enough time for Him to speak to us and for us to speak to Him. He speaks to us powerfully when we spend some time every day reading the Bible devoutly and meditating on the message God given us in Scripture. We receive strength from God to do our share of the shepherd's preaching and healing ministry by asking for it individually, in the family, and as a community in the parish Church, participating in the Eucharistic celebration. The Church has the double responsibility of teaching and feeding: There can be no true Christianity without the proclamation of the Gospel. Teaching the Word of God is essential to a Christian community. Christians must also display the compassion of Jesus by meeting the social and material needs of others by our works of charity as individual Christians and as a parish community. Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukibi

Please return all sold ticket stubs & money collected, as well as all unsold tickets, to the Grand Raffle Stand on the day of the picnic, drop them off in the collection basket at Mass, or deliver to a picnic committee member. Please note that raffle ticket prices have changed this year and are listed at the bottom of each ticket: $2 each, 3 for $5 or 6 for $10. "I was called to become the Bishop of Rome when I had reached, so to speak, retirement age and thought I would not be doing anything new. The Lord is always – always – close to us. He is close to us with new possibilities, new ideas, new consolations, but always close to us. You know that the Lord is eternal; he never, ever goes into retirement." The Dicastery for the Laity has created pastoral and liturgical resources in eight languages which parishes can use to celebrate the day.
