PASTORS MEDITATION: 2nd Sunday of Lent: TRANSFORMING OUR LIVES BY RENEWING THEM DURING LENT. (Gn. 15:5-12, 17-18, Phil. 3:17, 4:1, Lk. 9:28-36) The readings invite us to work with the Holy Spirit to transform our lives by renewing them during Lent so that they radiate the glory and grace of the transfigured Lord to all around us by our Spirit-filled lives. The first reading describes the transformation of Abram, a pagan patriarch, into a believer in the one God (Who would later "transform" Abram's name to Abraham), and the first covenant of God with Abraham's family as a reward for Abraham's Faith and obedience to God. In the second reading, St. Paul argues that it is not observance of the Mosaic Law and circumcision that transforms people into Christians and hence, that Gentiles need not become Jews to become Christians. St. Paul urges us to stand firm in our Faith and to live a life of discipleship with Jesus now, so that we may share in a glorious future later. In the Transfiguration account in today's Gospel, Jesus is revealed as a glorious figure, superior to Moses and Elijah. The primary purpose of Jesus' Transfiguration was to allow Him to consult his Heavenly Father in order to ascertain His plan for His Son's suffering, death, and Resurrection. The secondary aim was to make Jesus' chosen disciples aware of his Divine glory, so that they might discard their worldly ambitions and dreams of a conquering political Messiah and might be strengthened in their time of trial. On the mountain, Jesus is identified by the Heavenly Voice as the Son of God. Thus, the Transfiguration experience is a Christophany, that is, a manifestation or revelation of Who Jesus really is. Describing Jesus' Transfiguration, the Gospel gives us a glimpse of the Heavenly glory awaiting those who do God's will by putting their trusting Faith in Him. Therefore friends, the "transfiguration" in the Holy Mass is the source of our strength: In each Holy Mass, the bread and wine we offer on the altar become "transfigured" or transformed into the living Body and Blood, soul and Divinity of the crucified, risen and glorified Jesus. Just as Jesus' Transfiguration was meant to strengthen the apostles in their time of trial, each holy Mass should be our source of Heavenly strength against temptations, and for our Lenten renewal. Each time we receive one of the Sacraments, we are transformed: For example, Baptism transforms us into sons and daughters of God and heirs of heaven. Confirmation makes us temples of the Holy Spirit and warriors of God. By the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God brings back the sinner to the path of holiness. The Transfiguration of Jesus offers us a message of encouragement and hope: In moments of doubt and during our dark moments of despair and hopelessness, the thought of our own transfiguration in Heaven will help us to reach out to God and to listen to His consoling words to Jesus: "This is my beloved Son in Whom I am well pleased, listen to Him!" and so share the glory of His transfiguration. We need "mountain-top experiences" in our lives: We share the mountain-top experience of Peter, James, and John when we spend extra time in prayer during Lent. Fasting for one day can help the body to store up spiritual energy. This spiritual energy can help us have thoughts that are far higher and nobler than our usual mundane thinking. Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukibi

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK ESSAYS:

Jack Libbert 7th Grade. Where do I Find Christ in my Catholic School? "Look for Christ and you will find Him, and with Him everything else thrown in" C.S. Lewis wrote this to help us find Christ. I find Christ everywhere in my school. I find him in the students, teachers, staff and others in my school. There are lots of great Christians at St. Thomas School. You can always see them helping each other in the hallways or at recess. You can see the teachers in the classrooms teaching kids about Jesus. The staff keep everything running smoothly and are kind to everyone they meet. The students are kind to each other playing and they don't leave anybody out. If they see someone sitting by themselves at recess, they'll ask them if they want to play with them. Or if one of the little kids needs help tying his shoes, someone will help them. Many times, I have seen older kids top what they are doing and help them. I remember when I was a little kid and when people would help me do stuff I would feel really good. I feel like the kids at St. Thomas are very kind and nice to each other. The kids also bring money for the Penny war, bake sales, trail mix sales, and other fundraisers to raise money for the Pregnancy Help Center or Adopt-a-Family for Christmas. The teachers do a good job on teaching the kids about Christ. The teachers are nice and lead the fundraisers. St. Thomas just wouldn't be the same if we had different teachers. At St. Thomas everybody knows everybody. We are kind of just like a big family. I find Christ in every one of this school's students, teachers, and staff. We are all kind to each other at St. Thomas and we always will be. Thank you for reading my paper.

Claire Morris 8th Grade. Where do I Find Christ in my School? "Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you." (-Ephesians 4:32). Being Christ-like commands us to be humble, forgive others, generous, have patience, and to love others. I feel that if you can do all of these things you can see Christ in others and in yourself truly and faithfully. I find Christ in all of the students that re in my school from preschool to 8th grade. There are so many happy and uplifting souls in my school. Sometimes you are having a bad day and when a little kindergartner comes and talks to me it makes my day. I look at that as if God knew I needed that little one to talk to me and he showed me that Christ was living in the little one. They also show me Christ is within them because of how giving all of our students are. We, as a school, are always donating to different charities or foundations that need our help. Christ is living in each one of us and makes us different and unique. I also find Christ in the teachers at my school. The teachers are so generous and loving to the other teachers and the students. They are constantly putting others before them and sacrificing things like their breaks to help out others. Kindness is always shown from the teacher and you can see it clearly from their every day actions. Through all hardships the teachers stay strong and loyal to God and as a student I can see Christ living so strongly in them. Lastly, I find Christ at recess outside. Most days now we hardly play games during recess. We swing or talk to each other. Although I'd rather play games with my class sometimes the days we do nothing and just look around are the best days. I see Christ in creation by the sounds animals make or the sight of the sky with clouds and birds. Often these are the best recesses where I just lay on the rocks and look at the sky and listen to the sounds of God. Knowing that Christ is all around us, we have to be willing to look, listen, and believe the things we hear and see. I hope that I'm Christ-like and a strong believer in Christ who is all around us.
