BISHOP MCKNIGHT MARCH PRAYER INTENTON: For a greater respect for the dignity of all human life; may our Catholic Faith inspire us to recognize all human beings – no matter their age, race, or condition – as our brothers and sisters in the Lord.

PASTORS MEDITATION: FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT [A] JESUS, THE TRUE LIFE FOR A BELIEVER (Ezek. 37:12-14; Rom.

8:8-11; Jn. 11:1-45) Jesus challenges us to live in a loving relationship with him every day, so that he may raise us up at our death to inherit eternal life with him. Jesus' humanity inspires us, his divinity empowers us, Jesus gives us new life and hope.

Reporting his vision in the first reading, Ezekiel bears witness to the reanimation of the dead Israel in preparation for the return of the exiles to the Promised Land. He assures them that God's life-giving Breath will restore them, His people, will give them new life, and will resettle them in their land. St. Paul, in the second reading, assures the early Roman Christians who were facing death by persecution and tells us as well, surrounded by a culture of death, that the same Spirit Who raised Jesus from the dead and Who dwells within us, will raise our mortal bodies to life on the Last Day. Paul considers the Resurrection of Jesus the basis for our Hope of sharing in Jesus' Resurrection. For John, in today's Gospel, the raising of Lazarus, the sixth sign that he is the Deliverer, is a symbolic narrative of his Final Victory over death at the cost of his human life, and a sign anticipating his Resurrection. Describing this great miracle, the Church assures us that we, too, will be raised into eternal life after our battle with sin and death in this world. Thus, Resurrection Hope is the central theme of the Scripture readings for the Fifth Sunday of Lent. The readings assure us that our Faith in Jesus, who is "the Resurrection and the Life," promises our participation in his Resurrection and new life. So, friends, Jesus' words "Roll away the stone, unbind him and let him go." Implies that we often bind ourselves with chains of bad habits like alcohol, drugs, sexual deviations, slander, gossip, envy, prejudice, hatred, uncontrollable anger and bury ourselves in the tombs of despair. Sometimes we are in the tomb of selfishness, filled with negative feelings, like worry, fear, resentment, hatred and guilt. If we want Jesus to visit our dark dungeons of sin, despair and unhappiness, we need to ask him during this Holy Mass to bring the light and the power of the Holy Spirit into our private lives and liberate us from our tombs. Are there times when we refuse to let God enter into our wallets, fearing that faithful tithing will endanger our savings? When we receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Jesus will call our name and command, "Come out, Mary," "Come out, Joel!" This is Good News for all of us: "Lazarus, come out!" This can be the beginning of a new life. We need to be ready to welcome death any time. We live in a world that is filled with death. We kill each other in acts of murder, abortion, euthanasia, execution, war and terrorist activities. We kill ourselves through suicide, drug and alcohol abuse, smoking, overwork, stress, bad eating habits and physical neglect. The most important question is: am I ready to face my death? All of us know that we will surely die, but each of us foolishly thinks that he or she will not die any time in the near future. Let us be wise, well-prepared and ever ready to meet our Lord with a clear conscience when the time comes and to give Him a clean account of our lives.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukibi
