PASTOR'S MEDITATION: 4th Sunday of Easter: GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY AND VOCATION SUNDAY:

All of us have the opportunity to become leaders because we have people to care, to tend and to lead. For example, our pope is the leader of the universal church. The bishop is the leader of the local church called diocese. The parish priest is the leader of the parish. Government officials, managers, parents and others are also leaders in their own field of activities.

Every Fourth Sunday of Easter is called the Good Shepherd Sunday. It is because the readings used talk about the Good Shepherd who is Jesus Christ, ready to lay down His life for us, ready to defend life, ready to spread life, ready to give His whole life for His sheep every day. A true leader, models his/her leadership on the Good Shepherd. Jesus gives us the criteria of a true and genuine leadership.

First is dedication. A true leader is ready to give his life for all no matter what. Unlike our modern leaders, who take advantage and care for themselves instead of tending and looking after people's welfare. A dedicated leader must be Competent. Being competent is not only referred to as competent in leading the people but he/she must have knowledge of God and for God. A dedicated leader must be Commitment, that is, donating oneself for the sake of others, willing to share his/her Time, Talent and Treasure. A dedicated leader is Consecrated in a way which means that as leaders, they are set apart for the service of God. Their main purpose why he/she serves the people is because this is the best way on how to serve God. A dedicated leader must be ready to forgive whatever wrongdoings others have done against you (conversion)

Second criterion is knowledge. The true leader knows his/her people (John 10:3). Which includes knowing them by their names, works, ambitions, plans, feelings, sharing their life's conditions, backgrounds and identifying oneself in their struggle. As a priest am a spiritual leader of a parish and I must know the people. How many parishioners go to Mass on Sunday? Where are the others if not all attend? Are they un-churched or nominal Catholics? Do they go to the Church only when they are hatched (or during their Baptism), matched (or during their wedding) and dispatched (during the funeral Mass of their burial). Where are they now? Do I know where they may be when they are not in Church. If I happen to see them do I tell them that God is good all and looking for them especially in the Church. Each of us has the opportunity to become a leader and a shepherd, so be a good shepherd to them and look for them.

Lastly, a leader must be or give a good example in his/her community by words and deeds. Like us priests, you address us as "Father" because we have a big role to play as shepherds. All of us must follow the criteria of leadership: dedication, knowledge and exemplar. Have we cared enough for the flock God has entrusted to us? This Sunday is an opportunity for us to pray for all the leaders starting with ourselves that we can be good. Have a blessed week. Fr. Leonard Mukibi

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:za

We ask that St Thomas Parishioners read Bishop's McKnight's recent instruction on re-establishing Masses as the Governmental restrictions are being lifted. This letter is attached to our bulletin, found on the Church website page and on our Facebook page. "We have highlighted the most important sections (Before Mass, During Mass, and After Mass) for you to review about how Mass will be re-established at St. Thomas the Apostle." Since the bulletin and letter are printed in black and white, the highlights will appear as gray shading and not stand out so I think we need to mention the sections. "We have highlighted the most important sections (Before Mass, During Mass, and After Mass) for you to review about how Mass will be re-established at St. Thomas the Apostle." Since the bulletin and letter are printed in black and white, the highlights will appear as gray shading and not stand out so I think we need to mention the sections.

Please keep in mind that all of the faithful are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass through June 30, 2020. If you decide to attend Mass you will need to follow the strict guidelines mentioned in this letter including practicing social distancing, wearing of protective face masks or face coverings (you must provide your own) and understanding that limited seating will be available. St Thomas the Apostle will continue to live stream the Sunday 10:00 a.m. Mass for you to view. We are not encouraging you to attend. If you are uncomfortable or have concerns about attending Mass then please stay home.

The St Thomas Parish Pastoral Council and some of the Parish staff recently met to discuss how to implement these guidelines and future instruction will be forthcoming. In addition, our ushers will play a big part of helping ensure these guidelines are met and a special meeting will be called in the future to help instruct ushers are on these new changes. The changes will commence with the Saturday 5:00 p.m. evening Mass on May 9th. Should you have any questions please feel free to contact Fr. Leonard or one of the Parish Council Members.

MUSIC: Music is an integral part of worship. It is a joyous sound when the people in the congregation raise their voices together to sing their praises to God!

In the Bishop's instructions for getting cautiously together during this pandemic, the hymnals and missals, along with any other items in the pews, have been removed. Missals are on a table in the church entrance. You may pick up a missal to bring with you to public Mass but must take it home after Mass. Missals cannot be left in the pews. If you missed your opportunity to pick up a missal to keep with you, how am I supposed to sing, you may ask? For the immediate future, we will be using hymns that most in the congregation will likely know by heart, at least for the first verse. For others, we will use hymns with a refrain that is easy to remember, so even if you don't know the verses, you can join in on the refrain. So please, PLEASE, join in song where you can, and do the best you can. It's a brand new experience for us all. We might find singing from the heart – instead of the book – to be a very freeing experience! --Annette Kehner

THE DIOCESE HAS UPDATED THE PRAYER FOR A COMMUNION OF DESIRE: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church. And never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
