CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL: The Eucharist is the source of our Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Eucharist means "thanksgiving," and the CSA is an opportunity for us to thank God for all He has given us, particularly the gift of His Son. Both reminds us that followers of Jesus are to be bread broken for the life of the world. Through the CSA, we make known the Kingdom of God by helping each other to live our faith and share our Gospel belief. From honoring the dignity of each life, to teaching people about our faith, to sharing our resources with those who are alone or in need, our gifts to the CSA and the ministries these gifts support are our grateful offerings to God.

The CSA goal for St. Cecilia Parish is $2,550
Received $810.00

The CSA goal for St. Thomas the Apostle Parish is $10,404
Received $875.00

BISHOP MCKNIGHT NOVEMBER PRAYER INTENTION: Recognizing the many blessings God has bestowed upon us, may we embrace the spirituality of stewardship and avoid any sense of entitlement in our relationship with God, we pray to the Lord.

PASTORS MEDITATION: 33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: HOW PREPARED ARE WE FOR THE DAY OF THE LORD AT THE OF TIME? (Mal. 3:19-20a; 2Thes. 3:7-12; Lk. 21:5-19) The readings today warn us about the final days of the world, our own death and the final judgment. That is, "The Day of the Lord" or the "Second Coming" of Jesus in glory as Judge at the end of the world. Malachi, in the first reading, foretells this Day, which will bring healing and reward for the just and punishment in fire for the "proud and all evil doers." Although St. Paul expected that Jesus would return during his lifetime, he cautions the Thessalonians, in the second reading, against idleness in anticipating the end of the world. Paul advises the Thessalonians that the best preparation for welcoming Jesus in his "Second Coming" is to keep working and doing one's duties faithfully as he did. Today's Gospel passage underlines the truth that the date of the end of the world is uncertain. Signs and portents will precede the end and the Christians will be called upon to testify before kings and governors. The Good News is that those who persevere in faithfulness to the Lord will save their souls and enter God's eternal kingdom. Christ's Second Coming is something to celebrate because he is going to present all creation to his Heavenly Father. That is why we say at Mass, "We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess Your Resurrection, until you come again." Since Luke's community had experienced much persecution, today's Gospel would have given them a cheering reminder: "Don't give up because God is always with us!" Jesus' promise of the protective power of a providing God was meant to encourage His disciples to persevere in their Faith and its practice. Jesus later adds the signs for the coming destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the world to prepare His disciples and to remind them to rely upon him for Salvation, not their own power. So friends we must be prepared daily for our death and private judgment. We make this preparation by trying to do God's will every day, leading holy lives of selfless love, trust in God, mercy, compassion and unconditional forgiveness. In order to do this, we must dedicate ourselves to personal prayer, that is, by talking to God and by listening to Him through reading the Bible. Daily examination of our conscience at bedtime and asking God's pardon and forgiveness for the sins of the day will also prepare us to face God any time to give Him an account of our lives. We must remember that our homes, our Churches and even our own lives are temporary. Our greatness is judged by God, not on our worldly achievements but on our fidelity to our Faith and our practice of that Faith in loving service of others. How our faithfulness is expressed each day is the most important thing. We are to persevere in our Faith in spite of worldly temptations, attacks on our religion and moral values by the atheistic or agnostic media, threats of social isolation and direct or indirect persecution because of our religious beliefs. Let us conclude this Church year by praying for the grace to patiently endure all our trials, for they are essential to our affirmation of Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukibi
