BISHOP MCKNIGHT OCTOBER PRAYER INTENTION: For a greater respect for all human life; that our commitment to pro-life causes will be perfected in our acts of charity and mercy for those most in need.

PASTORS MEDITATION: 30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: WORLD MISSION SUNDAY (Sir. 35:12-14, 16-18; 2Tim. 4:6-8, 16-18; Lk. 18:9-14) The Catholic Church all over the world observes today as the World Mission Sunday. This annual observance was instituted 96 years ago in 1926 by Pope Pius XI's Papal decree. Every year since then, the universal Church has dedicated the month of October to reflection on and prayer for the mission. On World Mission Sunday, we gather to celebrate the Eucharist and to contribute to a collection for the work of evangelization around the world. The importance of Christian charity in action is a keynote of evangelization. This annual celebration gives us a chance to reflect on the importance of the mission of the church and mission work for the life of the Church. It reminds us that we are one with the Church around the world and that we are all committed to carrying on the mission of Christ, however different our situations may be. Each time we celebrate Mission Sunday we need to take renewed awareness of the urgent need to proclaim the Gospel. The goal of the Church's mission is to illumine all peoples with the light of the Gospel and to redouble our commitment to participate in the missionary activity which is an essential component of the life of the Church. We need to proclaim courageously and in every situation the Gospel of Christ, a message of hope, reconciliation and communion. In 2019 Pope Francis said "The Church is on a mission in the world," Baptized and Sent. "This missionary mandate touches us personally: I am a mission always; you are a mission always; every baptized man and woman is a mission." Hence the Holy Father calls on all Catholics and the Church to revive missionary awareness and commitment. He points to Mary as the model of humble and joyful evangelization. The Church, according to Vatican Council II, is "missionary" in her very nature because her founder, Jesus Christ, was the first missionary. God the Father sent God the Son into the world incarnate in Jesus, with a message. This message of the Gospel or the Good News. God sent His only Son into the world, so that we might live through him." (I Jn. 4:9). St. Paul writes to Timothy about the Church's mission: "God desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the Truth." (I Tm 2:4). Thus, the evangelizing mission of the Church is essentially the announcement of God's love, mercy, forgiveness, and salvation, as these are revealed to mankind through the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord. The Gospels show us how Jesus demonstrated this all-embracing and unconditional love of God by his life, suffering, death, and Resurrection. The observance of Mission Sunday is the appropriate time to reorder the Church to meet the demands and expectations of the true apostolic nature and Divine vocation, given to her by Christ. The holy living of faithful Christians and their anointed ministers with their fervent prayer is the only solution to tide us over the present challenges. Jesus, the first missionary, made a permanent arrangement for inviting all men throughout the ages to share God's love and salvation: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you." (Mt 28:19). This is why the Council Fathers of the Second Vatican Council declared that the Church of Christ "is missionary in its origin and nature." Hence, it follows that the mission of the Church is the mission of every member of the Church, and is not reserved for the priests, the religious and the active missionaries alone. Thus, every Christian is a missionary with a message to share, the message of God's love, liberation, and eternal salvation. The most powerful means of fulfilling this goal is by living a truly Christian life, a life filled with love, mercy, kindness, compassion, prayer and a forgiving spirit. Our Christian life should be our message. Hence, the most important thing is not the Gospel we preach, but the life we live. This is how the early Christians evangelized. Their Gentile neighbors used to say: "See how these Christians love one another!" The Christ they recognized and accepted was the Christ who lived in each Christian. Prayer is the second means of missionary work. Prayer is necessary for anyone who wishes to accept and follow Jesus Lord and Savior and for everyone who preaches the Good News in his life. The Holy Spirit will help us to become witnesses of Christ only in an atmosphere of prayer. Since witnessing to Christ through life is not easy, we need to support each other by our prayers always. All missionary efforts also require financial support because the love of God can often be explained to the poor only by providing them with food and a means of livelihood. The sick can experience the healing power of Jesus only through the dedicated service of doctors, nurses and health care workers. Building, maintaining and staffing Hospitals and nursing homes all require funding. The use of media of communication is often necessary to bring Christ's message of love and liberation more effectively to non-Christians in the modern world. On this Mission Sunday, let us learn to appreciate our missionary obligation and support the Church's missionary activities by fervent prayers, by generous donations and by leading transparent Christian lives. May the Virgin Mary, who collaborated actively in the beginning of the Church's mission with her presence beneath the Cross and her prayers in the Upper Room, sustain us in mission action and help believers in Christ to be ever more capable of true love, so that they become sources of living water in a spiritually thirsting world." Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukiibi
