PASTORS MEDITATION: 30th Sunday in ordinary time: LOVE GOD AND YOUR NEIGHBOUR: (Ex. 22:20-26; 1Thes. 1:5c-10; Mt. 22:34-40)

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY, SANCTITY OF LIFE

Life should be respected because the Bible teaches that life is a gift of God. It is God's commandment that we shall not kill. International Law forbids the killing of innocent, defenseless people. Because all rights depend on life, the right to life is the most fundamental issue of all; if that is eliminated, the rest will bear no meaning.

The central theme of today's readings is the greatest commandment in the Bible, namely, to respond to God's love for us by loving Him, and then to express that love in action by loving God living in our neighbor. Our love for God is tested and put into practice by the way we love our neighbor.

The first reading, taken from the book of Exodus explains the second greatest commandment, namely, loving one's neighbors as one loves oneself, especially the underprivileged. The chosen people of Israel should remember that, once they were aliens in the land of Egypt, God protected them and treated them kindly, so they are to protect others and treat them with kindness, they should become a humane society rooted in the basic religious concept of loving God living in their neighbor. In the second reading, St. Paul congratulates the Thessalonians on the positive effects of their example of loving one another as Jesus had commanded them to do. Their mutual love and their loving reception of Paul and response to his preaching, has bolstered the Faith of Christians elsewhere who have heard about them. In the Gospel today, Jesus combines the commandment to love God with the commandment to love one's neighbor and gives the result as the one Commandment of supreme importance in Christian life. Jesus underlines the principle that we are to love our neighbor as we love ourselves, because as God's children, we bear God's image, and to honor God's image is to honor Him in others. Love for our neighbor should not be a matter of feelings, but of deeds by which we share with others the unmerited love that God lavishes on us.

So friends we need to love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength, in response to His total love for us. This means that we should place God's will ahead of ours, seek the Lord's will in all things, and make it paramount in our lives. There are several means by which we can express our love for God and our gratitude to Him for His blessings, acknowledging our total dependence on Him. We need to keep God's Commandments, and offer daily prayers of thanksgiving, praise and petition. We also need to read and meditate on His word in the scriptures and accept His invitation to join Him in the Mass and other liturgical functions.

We need to love our neighbor: God's will is that we should love everyone, seeing Him in each of them. Since every human being is the child of God and the dwelling place of the Spirit of God, we are giving expression to our love of God by loving our neighbor as Jesus loves him or her. This means we need to help, support, encourage, forgive, and pray for everyone without discrimination based on color, race, religion, gender, age, wealth, or social status. Forgiveness, too, is vital. We love others by refusing to hold a grudge for a wrong done to us. Even a rebuke can be given as an act of love, if it is done with the right heart. We also express love through encouragement and by helping others to grow. We express agápe love in meeting the needs of others by using the talents and blessings that God has given us to comfort each other, to teach each other and to share the Gospel with each other, in deeds and in words.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukiibi

*You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.
This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.*

Matthew 22:37-39

When we stop to ponder and pray about all the blessings God has given us, we are reminded that those blessings and gifts are to be given away in love of God and neighbor.
Be generous with your love!
