PASTORS MEDITATION: 31st Sunday in ordinary time, year B: YOU CAN'T LOVE GOD WHOM YOU CAN'T SEE IF YOU DON'T LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR WHOM YOU CAN SEE. (Deut. 6:2-6; Heb. 7:23-28; Mk. 12: 28b-34)

The central message of today's readings is the most fundamental principle of all religions, especially Christianity. It is to love God in Himself and living in others. The word of God for today reminds us that we are created to love God by loving others and to love others as an expression of our love for God. Our religious practices like prayers, Bible reading, Sacraments, Adoration, acts of penance, and self-control are meant to help us to acknowledge and appreciate the presence of God in our neighbors and to express our love for God by serving our neighbors with love, sharing our blessings with them.

The first reading presents Moses explaining the Law to the Israelites after his return from Mount Sinai. He tries to make the people revere and obey the Law given by God as something that will bring them dignity, purpose, stature, distinction and a unique place in history. He reminds them that keeping God's commandments will give them God's blessings of long life, prosperity and fruitful, peaceful lives. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 18) invites us to love God because He alone is our strength and our stronghold.

Today's Gospel, a Scribe asks Jesus to summarize the most important of the Mosaic Laws in one sentence. Jesus cites the first sentence of the Jewish Shema prayer: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your strength" (Deut. 6:4). Then He adds its complementary law: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Lev. 19:18). Thus, Jesus says that true religion is loving God and loving our fellow human beings at the same time. It is by showing genuine, active love for our neighbors that we can demonstrate that we really love God.

So friends, how do we love God? We must keep God's commandments and offer daily prayers of thanksgiving, praise, contrition for our failings and petition. We also need to read and meditate on His word in the Holy Bible and to participate actively in the Holy Mass and other liturgical functions. If I am going to love God with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength, then I am going to have to place His will ahead of mine and to ask Him for help when I have to say no to some things that I might want to do. I am also going to have to seek the Lord's will and make it paramount in my life.

How do we love our neighbor? We love our neighbor by helping, supporting, encouraging, forgiving and praying for everyone, without discrimination based on color, race, gender, age, wealth or social status. If I am going to love my neighbor as I love myself or as Jesus has loved me, it will cost me suffering as it did Jesus! I may have to seek forgiveness when I think I have done something wrong. I may have to sacrifice something I think I need, to meet a brother's need. I may have to spend time in prayer for other people and reach out to them, helping, encouraging, and supporting them in the name of the Lord.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Leonard Mukibi

Yet our daily lives are so full that we sometimes forget who we are and whose we are. We wonder: "Where is God in all this suffering, brokenness, violence and fear?" Come and discover anew the healing presence of God with us and for us as we face the future in hope.
