STEWARDSHIP: stew·ard·ship [ˈstōərdˌSHip] noun1. the job of supervising or taking care of something, such as an organization or property: I think you will agree that St. Thomas the Apostle Parish is very fortunate to have so many wonderful stewards making it a beautiful community to belong to. In appreciation to all members for supporting our community and being amazing stewards, we are celebrating with a Mass and hosting a catered dinner on Saturday February 22! No worklist! Please be sure to sign up online or in the collection basket by February 1.
CSR Or Catholic Stewardship Renewal is simply saying yes to being part of this community and sharing your talents.
Signing up yearly helps the chair people know that you want to be part of a group and allows them to contact you.
The goal is to have chair people for each group and supervision in place to run our parish more efficiently.
If you haven't signed up yet, it is not too late and can be done online or by contacting Theresa at the office. Thank you for all that you do to support St. Thomas Parish! We are Looking forward to enjoying a fried chicken and roast beef dinner with you!
